Dr. Andrés R. Pérez Riera

The members of our group from the “Design of Studies and Scientific Writing Laboratory at the ABC School of Medicine, Santo André, São Paulo, Brazil” wish for all that in this Christmas every human being may attempt to give something of their own. Not just material things, but mainly small gestures to fellow human beings. We also wish that the New Year may bring new dreams and plenty of accomplishments, that it may be prosperous and that every day happiness should be renewed, and most of all, for us to continue together this year.
